What I take off your plate

Vendor sourcing & onboarding	Finding, vetting and onboarding new suppliers across production, packing materials and logistics.
Cost negotiation	Negotiating rates and terms directly with production and material vendors on your behalf.
Production & logistics coordination	Running the day-to-day across multiple production units and logistics partners so delivery stays on schedule.
Stakeholder & vendor meetings	Arranging and running shareholder-facing vendor meetings.
Ongoing relationship management	One point of contact for your vendor network — issues resolved before they become your problem.

Manufacturing in India, based elsewhere?

If your production runs through Indian vendors but you're managing the brand from abroad, I can be your on-the-ground point of contact.

— Fluent, clear English — written updates and live calls — Overlap hours for US, UK and UAE time zones

— Vendor network spans Agra, Kanpur and other hubs — A reporting cadence you can set your clock by via IndiaMART

What this looked like at Volar Fashion

Feb 2022 – Jan 2026 · London Rag & Rag & Co footwear brands. Ran vendor relationships end to end for two footwear brands — sourcing samples and materials (including vendors from Agra and Kanpur via IndiaMART), negotiating costs, and coordinating production and logistics. Also coordinated event, photoshoot and institutional partner vendors at an earlier role.

— Sourced samples/materials, negotiated costs across 6 production units — Arranged raw-material delivery schedules, ran shareholder vendor meetings
— Coordinated 2 packing-material vendors and 3 logistics partners — Managed 2 event/photoshoot vendors and 2 stationery vendors

How we'd work together

1. Audit

A full read of your current vendors, contracts and delivery timelines to find where you're exposed.

2. Optimize

Fix pricing, delivery timelines and vendor terms that are quietly costing you money.

3. Manage & report

Day-to-day vendor management with regular updates so you always know where things stand.
